Hizmet Studies Review is a scholarly peer-reviewed international journal on the Hizmet Movement. It provides interdisciplinary forum for critical research and reflection upon the development of Fethullah Gülen's ideas and Gülen Movement (Hizmet movement). Its aim is to publish research and analysis that discuss Fethullah Gülen's ideas, views and intellectual legacy and Hizmet Movement's wider social, cultural and educational activities.

Hizmet Studies Review is subject to peer review process. The journal is published two times a year, in Autumn and Spring. Submissions are invited in English or in French. Submissions in all two languages will be considered. For further information about style guide please visit www.hizmetreview.com.

Technical guidelines

- Manuscripts are accepted in English and in French. Any consistent spelling and punctuation styles may be used. Long quotations should be indented without quotation marks.
- Articles should be 5000–8000 words in length, unless they are Research Notes, which should be no longer than 3000 words.
- References should follow the MLA style (MLA Handbook).
- Manuscripts should be compiled in the following order: title page; abstract; main text; acknowledgements; references; appendices (as appropriate); table(s) with caption(s) (on individual pages); figure caption(s) (as a list). No text should appear in the header or footer.
- Abstracts of 100–150 words are required for all manuscripts submitted.
- Articles should be typed on one side of paper, double-spaced with ample margins, and bear the title of the contribution.
- Articles need to be ready for peer review. Therefore, there should not be any indication in the text or references, which identifies the author(s).
- Tables and figures need to be on separate sheets, not included as part of the main text. Captions should be gathered together and typed out on a separate sheet. Tables should be numbered by Roman numerals and figures by Arabic numerals. The approximate position of tables and figures should be indicated in the manuscript. Captions should include keys to symbols. Tables should be provided in an editable format (ideally using Word table tool). They should not be inserted picture files.
- Name(s) of the author(s) and contact details (postal and e-mail addresses) should appear on a separate cover sheet. Ensure that the full postal address, name, and e-mail contact of the author who will check proofs and receive correspondence are on the front cover sheet. Please note that the e-mail address of the corresponding author will normally be displayed in the article PDF (depending on the journal style) and the online article.
- An electronic version of the article should be sent to the Editor as an e-mail attachment.
- All correspondence regarding submissions should be sent to: Dr. Erkan Toğuşlu, Editor, Hizmet Studies Review, Parkstraat 45, 3000 Leuven, KU Leuven, e.mail: erkan.toguslu@soc.kuleuven.be
- Section headings should be concise.
- Please supply a short biographical note (max 150 words) for each author.
- Please note that submissions that do not conform to these guidelines will be returned to the author for correction and will not progress to peer review.

Research Articles; may be anywhere from 5,000 words to 8,000 words in length.

Research Notes; the journal publishes research notes of between 2,000 words to 3,500 words. These are shorter than major articles and are restricted to straightforward presentation of initial research results. Research notes are submitted in the same way as research articles, although authors should indicate whether their work is intended as a research article or note.

Forum-Debate-Commentaries, no more than 1,500 words that further substantive discussion of significant topics that may be appeared in the journal, may be published at the editor-in-chiefs discretion.

Presentation and Submission Protocol

- Authors are expected to have checked their own papers for spelling and grammar before submission; authors whose first language is not English are advised to engage assistance. Authors should remember that they are writing for an international audience and explain local concepts adequately.
- Papers submitted to HSR for publication should not be under review with another journal or editor of a collection of essays and should not have been published elsewhere.
- Authors must sign a transfer of copyright form before publication.
- Authors will be kept informed regarding the process of their submission.

References should follow the Modern Language Association (MLA) system. They should be indicated in the typescript by giving the author's name followed by any relevant page number (Charles 219-42) or if there is more than one author with the same name, add the first initial (T. Charles 15; B. Charles 43). The references should be listed in full alphabetically at the end of the paper in the following standard form: www.hizmetreview.com

Proofs will be sent to authors if there is sufficient time to do so. They should be corrected and returned to the editor within 48 hours. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted.

Hizmet Studies Review

Hizmet Studies Review (HSR) is a scholarly peer-reviewed international journal on the Hizmet Movement. It provides interdisciplinary forum for critical research and reflection upon the development of Fethullah Gülen's ideas and Gülen Movement (Hizmet movement). Its aim is to publish research and analysis that discuss Fethullah Gülen's ideas, views and intellectual legacy and Hizmet Movement's wider social, cultural and educational activities. The HSR publishes peer-reviewed articles, review essays and the journal aims to keep readers informed with commentaries, practical notes and reviews of recently published books-articles on Hizmet Movement. We welcome theoretical papers; the case studies and fieldworks; particularly critical thoughts that are neither hagiographic nor prejudiced but are well researched and aim to study the subject matter. We welcome contributions from all disciplines.

HSR welcomes work covering a range of topics, and invites articles, reviews, critiques on Hizmet Movement and Gülen. This includes contributions dealing with but not restricted to:

- Research on and analysis of Fethullah Gülen's writings
- Gülen's place in Islamic tradition
- Gülen's views on a broad topics (education, dialogue, charity, citizenship, politics, science, Sufism)
- Hizmet movement's nature and characteristics
- Comparisons with other religious-philosophical figures and movements
- Countering violence and terror
- Muslim integration in the West
- The role of women in public life and in the movement
- Charity activities
- The resolution of social, ethnic, and religious conflict

HSR appears biannually in Autumn and Spring.

HSR is edited at the KU Leuven in Belgium, at the Faculty of Social Sciences, Gülen Chair for Intercultural Studies.
